Special Grand Jury to Investigate the Late Riot-Monday's Bleetion to be Looked Into.

CINCINNATI, O, April 9.-A special grand jury was impanelled this morning with less trouble and in less time than are usually required. The list of names summoned is composed entirely of leading business men of the city. Nearly all responded and very few asked to be excused. Three said they had military certificates, which entitle the holders to exemption, but they would not present them. The ju.y as made up contains the names of C. W. West, George W. tains the names of C. W. West, George W. McAlpin, Thies G. Smith, Jas. Sater, Herrmann Geopper, A. S. Butterfield, and other equally well known business men. Instructions will be given this jury next Monday.

In the meantime, the judges are in consultation on the subject. It is understood this jury will be charged with a most important duty—that of investigating the facts cencerning the late ribt and the burning of the court house, including the charges of bribing the jury that convicted Berner.

Charges of Ceruption at the Election.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—The Commercial Gazette says: Further and complete returns of Monday's election do not materially alter the result as stated yesterday. George E. Richards is elected clerk of the police court by a majority of about 1,200, and three aldermen are elected in the Fourth district. The balance of the city ticket on the face of the returns is democratic, this result being secured by the most palpable frauds, perpetrated more particularly in the Sixth Ward. Here last fall on a full vote Governor Hoadly received a majority of 368 over Judge Foraker. According to the returns of Menday's election, the majority has been increased in less than six months to 951, while in every other ward in the city there was a large falling off the democratic majorities. The matter is not to be allowed to rest here, but a thorough investigation will be instituted, and the election of all the democratic candidates contested. If this ward should be thrown out the entire republican city ticket, with the exception of Douglass, for the board of education, and Myers, for magistrate, would be elected.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

The Measure is Reported Favorably to the Senate, With Amendments.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 9 .- Mr. Hill, from the committee on postoffices and post roads, reported favorably the original bill to establish a postal telegraph system. Mr. Hill remarked that the committee were unanimous as to the first ten sections of the bil', which relate to doing the work by contract with one of the existing companies, but that a midority of the committee were opposed to the section relating to the constructing or purchase of lines by the government. The provision relating to the liability of the contracting company, for failure to correctly and promptly transmit messages, had been amound by limiting such liability to 500 times the amount paid for the transmission. Two new features had been added to the bill. The first authorized the contracting company to employ the postmaster as its agent and op-erator at any postal telegraph office where the telegraphic receipts are in-sufficient to pay the salary of an operator, and to pay him a commission, not exceeding 50 per cent. of the charges on messages transmitted from his office. The second re-quired the postmaster-general to secure pro-visions of the contract which shall material

The contract system remains the most prominent feature of the bill, and it is not widely different from the scheme of the postal telegraph company, except that it empowers the postmaster general to receive bids from any telegraph company for the contract. The provisions relative to the establishment of a government system, pure and simple, in the event that no satisfactory contract with the established companies is secured, are a combination of the features of the Hill and Edmunds bills.

Effect of the Legal Tender Decision. Washington, D. C., April 9.—The sub-committee of the house committee on judi-ciary has agreed upon a joint resolution, proposing a constitutional amendment re-lative to the currency. The proposed amend-ment is as follows: The legislative powers granted to congress by the constitution shall not be construed to include the power to pass any law making anything but gold and silver coin a legal tender in payment of debts, except after a declaration of war, or in case of rebellion for invasion when the public safety may demand it.

The Baltimore Day has the following notice: "Mr. Willism J. Rieman, one of the oldest citizens of Baltimore, died yesterday at his residence, No. S5 Charles street avenue. He was a son of the late Henry Rieman, and entered into the business of sugar refining under the old system in 1884, afterward packing provisions in Baltimore and Terre Haute, and on his retirement was succeeded by his sons and nephew at 117 German street. He had served as a director in several public institutions. He was born in this city seventy-two years ago, and passed away peacefully and without pain."

Holland's Colonies.

Holland's Colonies.

The colonial empire of Holland includes the whole of Sumatra (according to the treaties of 1824 and 1871), Java, all Borneo except Sarawak and the part belonging to North Borneo company, Celebes, the Molucas, a part of Timor and a part of New Guines; also, Surinam, Curacoa and St. Martin's, in America. Thus a territory of 350,000 square miles, with a population of 24,000,000 to 25,000,000, subject to administration, is in the hands of a small country, containing rather more than 3,300,000 people.

Danviller, April 9.—The Indianapolis Presbytery met at the church in this place last night, and a large congregation greeted the visitors. There was a full attendance of delegates. In the absence of the last moderator, Rev. James McLeod, of the Second church, Indianapolis, preached the opening sermon, from the text. "Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus."—Collossians I., 23.

The Preebytery was then constituted by the Rev. Wm. A. Patton, the last moderator present, and the Rev. Wm. Forrance was chosen moderator for this meeting; Rev. W. A. Alexander, pastor of the Ninth church, Indianapolis, and Elder Allison, et threencastle, temporary clerks. The Presbytery then adjourned until 8:30 this morning, when routine business was considered.

This is a remedy they propose for the off recurring rate cutting, which has led to the present unprofitable ruling tariff on east-bound business.

The Oratorical Contest.

The Cratorical Contest,

The tenth annual inter-collegiate eratorical contest will take place at the Grand Opera house to morrow night. Representatives from Bloomington, Buller, Hanover, De Pauw, Franklin and Wabash colleges will centest for the honor of representing Indiana in the inter-state contest next month. A large number of students from each of the above named colleges will be in attendance. The Indiana, Bloomington & Western road has given a cheap rate from Wabash college, and a hundred students from there alone are expected. De Pauw, the State university and Butler will have equally large representations. The contest will be under the auspices of a state association, which will meet to-morrow morning in this city to elect officers and delegates and transact other business. The chief business, however, consists in parceling out the offices among the college fraternities, and this will be done after the most improved method of college politics. The fraternities will have a time of it to morrow inch after the contest. The Sigma Chis will banquet at the Denison; the Beta Theta Fi at the Bates. The Indiana association of the Phi Delta Theta will meet at the Grand hotel to-morrow afternoon and the Phi Gagma Delta will meet at the Bates house.

DR. HATFIELD, in his last Sunday's sermon, makes the effective point that the legal maxim "better that one auudred guilty men escape than one innocent man suffer' has outlived its usefulness. It originated in an era when criminals were not allowed the benefit of counsel, or even to examine the indictments against them. Now that every avenue to escape is open to the prisoner, there is more danger of a million guilty men going unpunished than one innocent man suffering.

But why should we export stocks and bonds, and be eternally the debters of European syndicates? Why not export plows and engines and manufactured cottons and woollens, and with the profits derived from their manufacture and sale purchase our own stocks and bonds? Protection means eternal indebtedness to Europe.

There is a small colony of Mormons in Smyrna township, Jefferson county, of whom eight are voters, enough to hold the balance of power. The Madison Courier recently has been printing a story by Joaquin Miller, in which Mormon life and practices are depicted in no flattering way. The Jefferson county Mormons heard of this, or read the story, and cast their vote solid against the republican party. Every one will remember the story of the new church in a frontier town, and the warning given the preacher to say nothing that would offend any of the vicious classes, as all had contributed liberally to the church. When the poor man asked what he could preach about, his adviser said: "Ob, give the Mormons fits: they've got no friends here." But it doesn't seem safe for a party paper to give them fits in Jefferson

HE WAS LEFT HANDED.

The Boss of the Front Platform Tells a Story About a Slim Young Fellow.

[New York Sun.]

"'Pearances are deceptive," the driver of a Third avenue car remarked. "About 6 o'clock last night a young man halled the car at Sixteenth street, and came forward to smoke a cigar. He was a pale-faced, element of the forward to smoke a cigar. der, foppish, dandy sort of a fellow. He wore one kid glove, and carried the other glove and a dainty little walking stick. As he was going to light his second cigar, he took two from a little case mounted in gold, and drawled, 'Dwivah, see heah, will you take a ciga-a-ah? Can smoke it after hours, you know.' I did take the cigar, and it was you know.' I did take the cigar, and it was a jolly good one, too.

At Grand street a rough fellow with a bull neck and a big, brawny fist got on and planted himself right next to the little dandy. Now, thought I to myself, there'll be fun and my little friend is in for it. The dandy, with his little cane and his glove in his right hand, was standing directly behind me, and the Bowery bully—I had seen him often and knew him well by sight as an ugly customer was a little to my left.

"Gi' me a clgar, my sweet beauty," said the bully after he had taken the measure of the young fellow.
"Rather unusual proceeding that I

"Rather unusual proceeding that I should say," drawled the little dandy. But he handed the rowdy a cigar, then took a fresh one himself, lighted it from the stump of his former one, and turned over the stump to the bully for a light.

"The bully smoked a minute, then made believe that he wished to get off and tried to push in between me and the little fellow.

"Git out of the way, will you!" he growled when the little dandy didn't stir. 'I want to git off.'

"Plenty of woom where you got on, my dear fellah,' answered the little dandy deliberately. 'Weally, my dear boy, I'm too comfortable to move, you see.'

"Out of the way, I tell you,' growled the bully, 'or I'll mash your damn nose for you."

"'Weally, that wouldn't be kind, you

But he just lifted his left arm, with the gloved hand, as quick as lightning caught the first blow on his elbow, and the second just below it; then straightened out that little arm of his right from the shoul-der, and sent his dainty little fist like a bul-let right into the fellow's face, knocking him completely off his pins. "Natural teeth? Oh, come now, you don't mean to tell me there is any such thing as a fashion in natural teeth!"

"But I do. To-day we can change the size, shape and general appearance of the teeth to suit the caprices of society. And why not? Every one knows the Chinese compress the feet of their girls; there are people among whom the women color their teeth blue; others there are also who color them yellow or black. Besides this there are fashions in hair, eyes, noses, ears and hands. The members are moulded and ornamented in accordance with fancies and tastes. Very large teeth are never pretty. In fact, an in accordance with lancies and tastes. Very large teeth are never pretty. In fact, an otherwise comely-looking person can be made most hideous, if the mouth is small, by having large teeth. Noees are now made in any shape desired, and why should the teeth not receive the same attention? "Then you mean to say teeth can be cut down, rounded off, polished up and made perfect."

"Just as you would a piece of granite.

Congregational church. It was unanimously rejected. The Ranneyites (the anti-Newman faction) presented a protest against the action of the meeting. The protest was signed by J. W. Ranney. M. D., and allies in behalf of 187 brother members of the church, and by the church clerk. The protest was promptly tabled, as were others offered by Belden Rogers and Peter De Witt. The last named called upon all who were opposed to Dr. Newman to leave the church. He started down the alse followed by four others. On reaching the door he turned and shouted out, "I thought this was a christian assemblage, and I find it is a nest or vipers." This outbreak was greeted with shouts and derisive laughter from the pews, the ladies being especially demonstrative and ejaculating "pray for him."

A Foreigner's Mistake.

"Who would think that respectable-looking woman was under arrest," said an Englishman, recently-landed, on Broadway yesterday. "I wonder what she has been doing? Shoplifting, I suppose. She seems to be a lady. Why does the policeman drag her along that way? It would be a terrible shock to her friends to see her now; but she takes it quietly enough."

The Englishman's friend looked at the policeman and the woman.
"It is not a case of arrest," he said. "The policeman is simply taking the lady's arm, and is protecting her as she crosses Broadway. Otherwise, you know, she might be run over."

Analysis by Dr. A. Voelcker, F. R. S., Consulting Chemist Royal Agricultural Society, Bocket, shows only a trace of nitrates in Blackwell's Bull Durham Tobacco. The soil of the Golden Belt of North Carolina, in which this tobacco is grown, don't supply nitrates to the leaf. That is the secret of its delicious mildness. Nothing so pure and luxurious for smoking. Don't forget the brand. None genuine without the trade-mark of the Bull. All dealers have it.

most apt to show itself. Nature, at this junc-ture, needs something to assist it in throwing off the impurities which have collected by the aluggish circulation of blood during the cold ter months. Swift's Specific is nature's at helper, as it is a purely vegetable altera tive and tonic.

Rev. L. B. Paine, Macon, Ga., writes: "We have been using Swift's Specific at the orphans' home as a remedy for blood complaints, and as a general health tonic, and have had remarkable results from its use on the children and employes of the institution. It is such an excellent tonic, and keeps the blood so pure, that the system is less liable to disease. It has cured some of our children of scrotuls.

W. H. Gilbert, druggist, Albany, Ga., writes: "We are selling large quantities of Swift's Spidio for a spring alterative and general health tonic, and with the best results. It is now largely used as a preventive and cure for malaria. There are many remarkable evidences of its merit in this section."

We do not hesitate to say that for a year past we have sold more of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) than all other Blood Purifiers combined, and with most astonishing results. One gentleman it did him more good than treatment which cost him $1 (00. Another, who has used it for a scrotnious affection, reports a permanent ours from its use.

COUNTY AFFAIRS. Point not Well Taken Against Appointment of Dr. Loftin,

Dr. Sample Loftin as county commissioner, to fill the vacancy occasioned by his brother's death. It says he does not live in the Third district, as required by law, and that there is a suit pending which would make it mpolitic for him to be a member of the board. The first objection is not well founded, lor the Doctor lives in Wayne township and is, therefore, eligible to the place. It is true that he is a party to the suit against ex-Treasurer Mothershead, for place. It is true that he is a party to the suit against ex-Treasurer Mothershead, for $3,500, as one of the sureties on his bond, but in this respect he is not so much disqualified as the other prospective candidate for the vacancy, whom the Times will probably not oppose. Jesse Wright, of Wayne tewnship, is the third bondsman of Ex-Treasurer Hanway, against whom a larger suit has for a long time been pending. It is known that when the late Joseph Loftin was a candidate for commissioner, he made a pledge to his republican constituents.—Jesse Wright included—that if he was elected, he would do his best to secure the dismissal of the Hanway suit. He used every honest effort to fulfill this pledge, but failed. The Times appears to have a deep interest in the Hanway case, and yet it places itself in the awkward attitude of urging that it be pushed to trial, in one column, and of indirectly favoring the appointment of Jesse Wright as commissioner, in another. But these are side issues in discussing the vacancy. Common decency and political fairness, if nothing else, should be an incentive to the surviving commissioners, and the auditor to select a democrat for the place. The News believes the public has appreciated the reforms of county affairs, as inaugurated by a board that was politically divided, and it has reasons to suspect that the official ring infesting the court house is moving to stop the commendable work by naming the man to fill the vacancy. There is little doubt that if the people had an opportunity to express themselves they would vote for a democrat of Commissioner Lottin's calibre to fill his vacant chair, who would add in continuing the work so earnestly begun and in which he took a conspleuous part. The tax-payers want the commissioners to keep a watchful eye on the county officials, and not be controlled by them, as some boards have been.

The board of canvassers of the township vote completed their work last evening, with the following result:

Kitz (D). De Ruiter (R) Warner (N).	850
Kitz's plurality	293
Smock (R) Buskirk (D) Hodges (N)	7,05
Smock's plurality Feibleman (R). Henzie (D) Davis (N).	7,23 6,94

Republicans.

Kachn's "Heston 71
The constables elected include Plummer, Slasher, Goudy, and Blake, republicans, and Kachn, democrat. The total vote cast was 14,925, being a few hundred in excess of the township vote in 1882. The republican candidate for constable, who was defeated, is Horace Heston, colored. Henzle, democrat, ran behind his ticket, and this accounts for Feibleman's increased majority, as compared with Smock.

The Hitchcock and Richardson Cases.

The Hitchcock and Richardson replevin cases, to recover property confiscated by the police in a raid upon Walker's rooms, some weeks ago, has gone to the superior court. Hitchcock owned a table, which he deposited over Walker's for storage, and proof was had before 'Squire Glass that it had never been used for gaming purposes, and for that reason judgment was given plaintiff. The city attorney thereupon appealed, in obedience to instructions, but he reperts, so far as Hitchcock is concerned, that his claim is good. In the Richardson case, the city made its point and recovered judgment, whereupon Richardson appealed. Hitchcock asserts that he never owned a gaming implement in his life, nor does he gamble, and for that reason he contested the suit. The table in dispute is comparatively worthless, and he replevied solely from the principle involved. The Hitchcock-Bichardson Cases, he Evangelist at Grace M. E Church. The second day of Mr. Little's sojourn with Grace church was one to be remembered. About 125 persons assembled at 3 p. m. The evangelist said that whenever the members of the church got the burden of souls on their hearts they would have a revival. He then asked how many had requests to make. Prayers were asked for about 75 unconverted friends of those present. At 7:15 p. m. a song service commenced, and at 7:30 the text for the evening was aunounced. It was the single word, "Eternity." With this as a starting point a sufrring appeal was made to the unsaved. Two bowed at the alter and one found peace. All are cordially invited to both the afternoon and evening services.

The Kerner Case. The Kærner Case.

The motion for a new trial in the Kærver murder case was formally entered, yesterday afternoon. It is alleged therein (1) that the finding of the jury was contrary to law and was not supported by the evidence; (3) that the court erred in permitting the evidence of Mary Sloan, concerning the relations between Kærner and his wife, and in permitting the testimony of Justice Pease; (3) that there was irregularity and improper conduct in not allowing the defendant to answer certain questions on cross-examination. There are fifty other minor allegations, and it is claimed that new and important evidence has been discovered, tending to implicate Wampf, deceased.

A Permanent Beller Committee.

The by law providing for a permanent relief committee has been adopted by the governors of the Board of Trade. The provisions of the sact call for a committee of fifteen members, five of whom shall constitute a quorum, whose duty it shall be to solicit contributions for the relief of sufferers by flood or other public calamity. All surplus relief money shall be invested as a relief fund to be used only by direction of the committee in providing help for the distressed. The following gentleman constitute the relief committee: N. S. Byram, chairman: W. P. Gallup, V. T. Malott, E. S. Elder, EM Lilly, J. A. Closser, A. D. Lynchi I. S. Gordon, William Scott, J. F. Wallick, J. T. Brush, D. M. Ransdall, H. S. Fraser, S. F. Gray, A. Gall.

The law committee of the Board of Trade has been asked to indicate to the governors what steps are necessary to so change the articles of association as to require new members to pay an entrance fee proportionate to each member's share of the accumulated funds.

A man named Milton, living in Wabash, died, and at his funeral which occurre i yesterday, as the body was being lowered into the grave the casket slipped off the lines ard immbled into the vault. When it struck the bottom it split open from end to end, allowing the remains to roll out. The curpes was dragged out of the grave, replaced in the fin, which was naited together again, and once more the frail affair gave way, the body falling head first into the tomb. The people assembled, so sickened by the ghastly spectacle they left the spot, and a few laborers resurrected the remains, put them into the coffin and lowered them into their last resting place.

suicidal intent Dr. Fouts was called to attend her, and reports chances against her recovery. About a year ago suit was brought in the Clark circuit court against Mrs. Rice for $5.000 damages by Douglas Dye, who boarded in her family, alleging she put poison in his coffee, which came near causing his death. The trial was set for yesterday in court, and Mrs. Rice and her witnesses came down on the mail boat to attend. She had been brooding over the suit for months, and the supposition is she became desperate and sought death by suicide.

Patents were issued to Indianians yesterday as follows: Newton M. Bowen, Knightstown, fanning mill and seed-cleaner; William A. Bristor, Indianapolis, shoe; Samuel T. As the fast mail train, on Sunday moraing, bound from Chicago to New York, was coming into Warren station, seven miles west of South Bend, a man stepped out of the car and took a position on the platform. In a few minutes it was thought he was attacked with a spasm and pitched headlong from the train, which was running at the rate of forty miles an hour. He struck on the back of his head, and must have been instantly killed. The authorities have had his features photographed with the hope of being able to ascertain the man's identity.

There is great indignation manifested at Rising Sun over the outrage committed upon Mr. John Smith, and it is more than probable that the fiends who are now in jail charged with having done the deed will be lynched. The grand jury was recalled yesterday, and strict charges given it to investigate the sfish fully. The physicians have despaired of saving Mr. Smith's life. It will be remembered that he was assaulted and nearly roasted to death to make him divulge the hiding place of his supposed money. He was horribly burned in many places about the body, and as he was hanging when his clothes were burned off him, his face was horribly burned and every particle of his hair and eyebrows and lashes.

MARKET REPORT.

Indianapolis Wholesale Market-Daily Report.

Report.

The dry goods market is receiving considerable attention at the hands of buyers. The territory's surrounding Indianapolis is yearly throwing more of its trade into this city, and the dealers here are showing their appreciation thereof, by keeping on sale larger and better assorted stocks, than ever before. While the Indianapolis dry goods dealers are not noisy in their methods, their business is being substantially improved, and their success is a matter of record. Considerable is doing in dress goods and the inquiries for white goods indicate that there remains no doubt they will sell largely this season. Cottonades are showing unusual activity, and, by the way, they are selling cheap-there remains no doubt they will sell largely this season. Cottonates are showing unusual activity, and, by the way, they are selling cheaper than ever before in this city. The season just opening promises great prosperity. Staple groceries are steady at quotations. The egg market has dropped another notch, and shippers, to day pay only 18c.

PEACE JUSTICES.

accoping Henrie, the agmocratic nomines for peace justice for West Indian spolis, to-day made demand upon the governor that the commission be issued to him, u pon the ground that 'Squire Feibleman is not a resident of that suburb, and therefore was ineligible. dent of that suburb, and therefore was ineligible. The matter was taken under advisement. During the forenoon a commission was issued to Dick Smock for peace justice "in and for the city of Indianapolis"—this fact being very explicitly and emphatically set out. It is presumed that Smock hastened to secure his credentials, in order to prevent Fiebleman from laying claim to choice of piace, as his actions herefofere seemed to indicate. There is no question but what the peace justice question is in a tangle, and Henzie's application will not tend to smooth the adjustment.

application will not tend to smooth the adjustment.

Justice Feibleman has no intention whatever of removing to West Indianapolis, for which balliwick he was elected on Monday. According to his construction of the statutes and the constitution, all the justices in the township can move into the city, and locate their office or offices wherever they choose. He says he would have resigned when he was nominated for the suburban justiceship if he had not known that the Van Vohris law, supposed to govern the matter, was null and void. An act of 1867 amended an act of 1852 on the subject, and provided that each township should have three justices of the jeace and one additional for each incorporated town and city. The Van Vohris act was entitled an act amending an act approved June 9, 1852, being number 1,418 of the revised statutes." The title is defective, as number 1418 is the act of 1867 instead of 1852. It is claimed that the act of 1873 and that the Van Vorhis act (approved March 8, 1883,) is, therefore, null and void. The author of it is said to admit that it is invalid, for the reason that he had reference whelly to the act of 1852. The law will be tested, no doubt, in due course of time, and, if the supreme court should decide against him, Justice Feibleman will resist further, on the ground that any citizes of a township is eligible to the office under the state constitution and that the legislature has no power to say where he shall establish an office. By the time all these things are settled, the justice will have grown fat upon the emoluments of the office. There, is a difference of epinion among attorneys relative to the questions involved. Squire Feibleman presented the clerk's certificate to the governor this afterhoon, and made a demand for his commission as justice to be issued.

Reduction in Railway Mail Clerks.

A heavy reduction in the number of clerks in the railway service has been determined up, owning to the inadequacy of the congressional appropriation to meet the expenses of the service as now constituted. Forty clerks from C. J. French's district will be cut off, and over 300 from all divisions. Chief clerk, Frank Valle of this division has been notified that a reduction is pending and it is understood that he has prepared the records of the clerks under him to be submitted to the superintendent. Mr. Valle says that the clerks showing the poorest records will be discharged. The mail service, he says, can very ill sustain the reduction, as it is growing every month and the present force is frequently insufficient to handle the mail in transit. The result will be a serious crippling of the service The men will have to work extra, and on top of that comes the probability that, June 1, a reduction of salaries will take place; as it is claimed that the appropriations will not even sustain the service after this heavy reduction in clerks has been made. The lists of clerks has been made. Reduction in Railway Mail Clerks. after this heavy reduction in clerks has been made. The lists of clerks has been made, and lightning may strike at any moment. Among the clerks who testified adversely to Superintendent French in the recent investigation, there is a dim, but growing, fear that Providence—or the democratic congress—has given Mr. French an opportunity to Reforming the Jury System. The superior court judges, when they med in general term, the other day, took cogni in general term, the other day, took cogni-zance of the public and private discussion of the laxity of justice, here and elsewhere, and, as a result of their conference, a much needed reform in the jury system has been inaugurated. The law says that the bal-liffs shall not place upon the jury any one who has served in such capacity within a year last past. Heretofore, very little attention has been said to this law, but henceforth it will be rigidly enforced. little attention has been paid to this law, but henceforth it will be rigidly enforced. This will work two benefits, viz: First, the professional juror will have to go; second, business men will be compelled to serve. No excuses will hereafter be accepted by the judges. It will do no good to present the certificate of a doctor to the effect that the juror called is not able to serve, for the judges, in such cases, intend to send for the doctor glying the certificate and require him to make oath to its trath. It has been an easy matter for really good business men to escape jury service heretofore by procuring such a certificate.

THE MAENNERCHOR TO-NIGHT. THE MAENNERGHOR TO-NIGHT.

The program for the fourth regular entertainment of the Maennerchor to-night is a good one. It embraces the overtures to Martha and Stummen Von Portici by the orchestra: the Inflammatus from Stabat Mater, and "Easter Moraing," by Mrs. Weust and chorus, and that lady will also sing "The Swabian Girl." Mr. Kipp will play "Le Rive," accompanied by the orchestra, and the whole will conclude with the romanza "Toggenburg," solos by Mrs. Weust and Misses Adams and Hessley, and Messra. Heckler, Lipmann and Bennerscheidt.

The Ogden Treuble.

Fred Williams, the colored "Jumbo," who shot Isaac Hayes, one morning last week, at Nellie Ogden's place, gave cash bond in the sum of $300, to-day, for his appearance in the criminal court. Hayes was corralled last evening by Sergeant O'Donnell and settled the case of associating with prestitutes against him by paying the customary $19.40. Nellie Ogden, in consequence of the trouble she experienced with her lovers and anticipated from the police, yesterday dismissed the immates of her bagnio and sold her furniture, preparatory to removing to Cincinnati for permanent residence, and, as she declares, permanent reform.

Green back Convention.

It has been definitely decided that the national convention of the greenback party shall be held at the time originally selected, May 28, in this city. Col. Jesse Harper chairman of the national central committee, has vetoed the preposition to change the date. He says the executive committee has no power to make the change, and that it could not be done without convening the entire central committee. The arrangements for the convention are already well under way. In securing the opinion of the committee as to the advisability of a change H. B. Leonard was acting under the advice of prominent greenbackers, who thought the circumstances would justify such a procedure.

How It Was Done. Hew It Was Done.

The election returns show that Horace Huston, the defeated colored republican candidate for constable, received 175 votes in the second precinct of the First ward, his fellow candidates for the same office—Goudy, Plummer and Slusher—received only 125. As an explanation of this peculiar condition of the figures, it is alleged that Christy, the leader of the fifty colored voters in the precinct, called them together and prepared their tickets, scratching the names of all the candidates for constable but Heston, from each. If the colored population generally had done this, Heston would have been the only successful candidate.

it is a general theme of talk. The candidates who will go into the couvention with the strongest following are Ross and Patterson in the order named; although to-day there were indications in fayor of Parker as a compromise candidate. It is agreed that the rivalry between the first named factions is intense, and in some quarters very bitter, and charges of inactivity or pronounced opposition to the regular ticket on Tuesday last are freely bandled. Some special friends of Major Ross, without question, did oppose De Ruiter, and made no secret of it, and this fact, on Tuesday evening, was unpleasantly commented upon by republicans while chagrined with defeat. It was unfortunate for Major Ross that these zealous friends should have been so indiscreet, and however unjust it may be, the burden of their ill-advised party action fell upon him. Personally he stood aloof from the feud as much as he could, a fact so stated yesterday, but this did not detract from the criticism, and it follows that his competitors are making the most of it. This morning his friends made a showing that while such may have been the case upon the part of a few as complained of, many warm supporters of Major Ross stood at the polls all day for De Ruiter, and so did their leader, and they claim that the southern wards, which are strong for him, made gains for De Ruiter, while the northern wards reported losses. In turn they charge a luke-warmness upon the part of Patterson's friends, and so it goes. The only person who appears to have escaped without the smell of smoke upon his raiment is Parker, but how much that may push him to the front as a compromise candidate is for Saturday to decide. Some curlestry is felt to-day, as to how DeRuiter takes his defeat, but so far it appears that he has left his friends to indignate and is swallowing his medicine in silence. Quite a number of machine republicans were tearing their hair this moming because The News had seen fit to comment upon the situation yesterday evening, but they may possess their sou

Wall Decorations.

The superiority of our display of Wall Papers for this season's trade will be readily recognized and appreciated by any one who will take the trouble to look through our stock and compare it with others in this market. In medium and cheap papers, as well as in the more expensive and elegant descriptions, we show the largest stock and the most complete variety ever seen in this city. We are prepared to satisfy the largest range of wants and fastes, and possess unequalled facilities for suiting the economic views of all.

Our new receipts, consisting of selections from all the leading manufacturers, both American and Foreign, comprise all the most recent and approved products of this branch of decorative art—such as Silver Papers, Stencil Designs, Raised Felts, Stamped Leathers, Tapestry effects, etc. We show a full line of Lincrusta Walton, the latest novelty in this description of wall embellishment, with the patterns in solid relief, and blending in superior degree the qualities of beauty and elegance with indestructibility. Complementary of the foregoing, we show a complete line of elegant and harmonious frieze and ceiling decorations.

Our patrons, furthermore, have the benefit of the services of an experienced, skillful and thoroughly efficient designer, who personally superintends for us the work of wall decoration. One innovation introduced by us-a reform, so to speak—will, no doubt, be duly appreciated by our patrons: We save you the trouble of taking up carpets, which we protect from all soiling or damage of any kind while performing the work or decorating the wall and ceiling of rooms.
